OVERVIEW

- Abhay Venkatesh is a Tech Lead at Anduril Industries, where he focuses on Autonomy Infrastructure, Simulation Infrastructure, Command-And-Control, and Lattice
- Abhay is mentored by Jared Newman, Head of Platform at Anduril, and Nabil Enayet, Group Lead for Platform at Anduril
- Prior to his Tech Lead role, Abhay worked directly under Brian Schimpf, CEO and Co-Founder of Anduril, and ex-Director of Engineering at Palantir, on Perception problems ranging from Edge Inference, Quantized Learning and Inference, to Object Detection and Mapping
- Abhay graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Madison with Distinction and Departmental Honors with a Bachelor of Science in Computer Sciences and Mathematics
- At the University of Wisconsin-Madison as an Research Assistant, Abhay worked on Computer Science research, focusing on Machine Learning, Computer Vision, Robotics, Human-Computer Interaction, Internet of Things, and Big Data Systems
- For his Machine Learning and Computer Vision Research, Abhay was advised by Dr. Vikas Singh, Professor of Computer Science and Bioinformatics at the University of Wisconsin-Madison
- For his Big Data Systems Research, Abhay was advised by Dr. Shivaram Venkataram, Assistant Professor of Computer Science at the University of Wisconsin-Madison
- For his Human-Computer Interaction and Robotics Research, Abhay was advised by Dr. Bilge Mutlu, Professor of Computer Science at the University of Wisconsin-Madison
- Abhay has also worked at Facebook as a Software Engineer Intern on the News Feed Integrity Team, where he worked on machine learning, modeling, and product to improve the quality of the Facebook News Feed
- At Stanford University, Abhay was a Research Intern working on Robotics, Human-Computer Interaction, and Software Platform research advised by Dr. Wendy Ju, and Dr. Michael Bernstein
- In High School, Abhay was the Valedictorian for his breadth of excellence ranging from music and competitive quizzing to academics and entrepreneurship
